MACAO NOTES.

(From Our Own Correspondent.),

MACAO, "April 27. The arrest of the Bank compradore has stirred up quite a hernet's nest among the big wigs. The Chief Justice Dr. Vidal fumed when the local press published a fact of which he had not had the slightest inkling-officially. Dr. Nolasco, editor of the Vina Nows, was called upon to corroborate his news and produced among several witnesses an informant in the Bank Manager himself, Sv. Manarte. It fell out that the warrant was issued by H. E. the Governor on a representation from the manager requesting the compradore's detention, but no charge was entered. From Mr A. J. Basto's own lips we gather that on behalf of Madame Ip Kwong Chow No 2 he had interviewed the manager who eventually promised to effect the compradore's release on receipt of $20,000. .The amount was duly handed in on Monday forenoon and Sr., Basto was later in the day apprised of Sr. Manarte's deep regret that the man was still in confinement The manager, positively declined to go beyond a verbal acknowledgement of the sum, which likewise continues safely lodged in the bank's coffers.

The native who was charged with stabbing a coolie in the employ of the Spaniards | the 30th APRIL, at 9.15 p.m. from the Victoria Cinematograph with intent to burglary has been discharged. BOOKING AT --The victim we are glad to learn has quite recovered. He has identified his assailant, but as the weapon was found on the scene of the crime, Counsel for the defendant very deftly explained away the reason of the man's flight and how he happened to have about him a supply of TAIRST SPECIAL DISFLAY been cantering off full speed on his hobb since we last recorded his derring-do of along the length of the Rua Ferreira do Amaral. He has further relieved two other burallel streets of their drain fittings. What are the police about 3 1/2 and

A "CHINO-GERMAN."

General Yin Chang, the retizing Chinese Minister at Berlin, is known in the German capital as the "Chino German." The title rests upon his wonderful fluency"in the German language. He has not only conquered the language, but has acquired the Berlin or "military" dialect. A story is told of how he frightened two German soldiers nearly out of their with during the Boxer uprising of 1909. General Vin Chang was commander of the Arsenal at Tientsin when that city was bombarded and seized by the Allies. Meeting one day a couple of German infantry-men prowling in forbidden parts, and recognising their nationality, he marled at them in the most approved Prussian fusition. "Out-with you, you blithering blockheads, or I'll give you one on the side of your jaw that will not you spinning," all rattled off in the choicest Berlin pasal drawl. The German anddiars were breathless with astonishment at hearing themselves addressed in such unmistakably home accounts by a Chinese

JANTON NOTES.

(From Our Own Ournespondent). REPARETALL.

CANTON, April 28. Still another act of lawlessness on the part of the crowd has to be reported. There is to be a great industrial exhibition held shortly in the north and the articles to be sont by the Cantonose have for some days past been on view at the Chiu Chow Guild Hall. Large numbers of people, including many of the European community, have been "to see these articles and, at some distance from the Hall and fronting on the new Bund a large pagoda-like structure was erected to form a kind of gateway. It was announced that there would be a display of fireworks on Sunday night and in consequence the Bund was densely througed with people. As is usual here, the police made no attempt regulate the traffic and before very long the road was so blocked that it was in possible to force a passage through the crowd. The police then began, when was too late, to control the growd but their method of doing so gave so much offence that there were soon several fights going out In the midst of the excitement several rowdies forced their way to the abovementioned pagoda, on which was a scaffold from whence the fireworks were to be burned, and set fire to it. The flimsy structure was soon in a blaze and in a few minutes was utterly destroyed. Many civil and military officials with their attendants were soon on the scene and with considerable trouble managed to disperse the crowd and enable the police to arrest several of those who had started the fire. It is really wonderful what small causes lead to riots and trouble in this city but it is often to be observed that if the police used more tact and discretion in dealing with the mob these occurrences would be less frequent. THE LATE GRAND COUNCILLOR TAIL The remains of the late Grand Councillor now

Tai left Peking on the 17th instant and are expected to reach the City to-day. The and she heartily joins in my feelings of family of the deceased have made great preparations to receive the corpse with for Pale People enjoy's world-wide reputsdue state. It is a custom here, that when the remains of any holding the 1st or 2nd degree of official rank arrive in the City rich red blood which they supply feeds the TOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the a procession is formed and certain cere- enfeebled digestive organs and reteres their monies are performed to pay honour to the eceased. On Monday next the provincial officials will go to the place where the coffin is to be deposited and perform certain. rites. Various sections of the community will do the same on Tuesday and Wednesday morning, while on the afternoon Wednesday the female relatives of the deceased will perform their part of the ceremonies. When all these proceedings are completed the remains will be taken to > 494 late Councillor. INTERESTING CEREMONY.

> > Yii Magistrate is to be married on May 2nd. The girl has been betrothed for long time but the prospective bridegroom could not be found for some time. Now he has returned and the marriage will be celebrated at the Kwong Wah Medical Hall and western ceremonies will be observed. Some of the chief ladies of the City are arranging to make suitable gifts to the bride on her wedding day.

There seems to be a great of unrest in the country districts and and almost every day news of outrages by societies and by gangs of armed robbers is brought to the City. The latest place to receive the unwelcome visitations of these people is Luk Po gangs are those that deal in opium. The keepers of these shops have generally 484 plenty of money and the drug itself stored in the shops is a welcome article of plunder, GROUND NUT OIL. The tradesmen of this place are quick to take advantage of any rumour to put up the price of the various commodities. It was reported that a large quantity of ground nuts had been experted to Japan and the oil merchants immediately raised the price. This oil is sold in enormous: quantities as the people use it in cooking almost all their food and a rise in the price it of makes it very hard on the poorer public. The merchants, being protected by their guilds, have things all their own way Mothersill's Seasick Remedy has never and the people have to suffer accordingly. POLICE SECRETS. The Taotai of Police has discovered that several secret matters relating to the police have from time to time been divulged and he fears that some persons in the force are not honest but have gained admittance thereto in order to frustrate the efforts of the police. He has directed that no mem-ber of the force is to converse on police; matters with the outside public and any one divulging police secrets will be very Exporters & Importers setting his face again the slovenliners of certain of the police and he has also directed that the persons on duty in his Yamen are at all times to wear their uniforms and

TO DEVELOP INDUSTRIES. Some time ago the Taotai of Industries proposed to established a Technical Bureau in order to improve the various native industries. The scheme was approved by the authorities and a suitable building is to be erected. As the expense of this undertaking will be very great it will be some time before the building, is completed and in the meanwhile the Taotai has opened a temporary bureau in his Tamon. The M nister of Fducation, in Peking has sent a dispatch to the Viceroy arging the impor-tance of technical education and the Viceroy has notified the Provincial Educational Commissioner to inform students that such an institution will be shortly established.

THE CHANGEHA RIOTS, Writing from Hankow on April 16, a correspondent sunt the North China Daily News a vivid account of the Changsha riots which we beg leave to quote :-The origin of the Changsha riots seems to have been as follows : A very poor family living in the city were starving, and the husband made up his mind to go out. side the city to try to find work. On the morning of the 12th instant he went out. On the following day he returned home and found his wife dead, having died of lunger. He then took his two children and threw them into the river and then frowned himself. By this time a crowd and gathered, and later the grandfather and grandmother, and they began to blame the Chinese officials for not assisting the poor, and for not reducing the price f rice. Shortly, afterwards they asked a relation f the deceased to go to a rice shop a for ards away and buy a sheng of rice; he aid 80 cash." About half an hour afterrards a friend of the latter went to the ame shop to buy a sheng of rice and was old that the price was 84 cash. The man hen complained, and pointed out that his riend only half an hour earlier had paid tot see how he should be charged more-To this 'the shopman replied that rice as becoming dearer all the time, owing to se scarcity and that he would have to pay his higher price, which the poor man sfused. The two finally came to blows, ad the Chinese police were called in. B his time some of his friends had come to he rescue and after some fighting were all arched off to a small Chinese Police ation close by. "A couple of hours later large crowd gathered round the police ation and demanded the release of their oor friends, which was refused. They then stormed the police station nd had a hand-to-hand routtle with the olicemen, one policeman being killed nally police reinforcements arrived and rested the ringleaders and marched them

f to the Chief Police station in the city. On arriving there the Chief of Police. actai Lai Tsze-pai, refused to let any of nem go, and the crowd then numbering everal hundreds went in and stormed the olice station and dragged the Chief of olice out on the road and hung him up to One of the policemen, seeing this, took

This uniform and in his disguise of a poor untryman went and took the Chief of olice down from the tree. "The unhappy ficial was in a dying condition, having en almost beaten to death. This rescuer ld the crowd not to be against the man he was merely acting under orders from e Governor, and that it would be best to. to the Governor's yamen and have e matter settled. When there the ldiers in the yamen took charge of the hief of Police, and the Governor told the owd to go away, and refused to release he men who had been arrested in the orning. The crowd then got excited and tried to in an entrance into the yamen by force, nd the yamen soldiers shot and killed me, thereby making matters much worse d giving rise to a not involving several ousands. By the time evening came on e trouble had become very serious. The officials and the Provincial Treasurer

om the Treasurer's yamen, after consultion with the Governor, agreed to reduce e price of rice and issued a notice that e price would be at the rate of 60 cash But to this the mob would not demanded that the price reduced to 40 cash; to which in rn the Governor would not agree. tter in the evening of the 13th stant, the crowd increased in large mbers and collected around the overnor's yamên and again tried to force entrance by trying to break through the ck walls. They then went and broke into some of e kerosene shops in the city and set fire the yamen, which was burnt down, the licials fortunately managing to escape in e excitement and darkness. It was reorted during this time that the Governor as either killed or had poisoned himself, d that his son had been killed.

After the demolition of the Governor's men, the riotous mob went and broke all the rice shops in the city, broke into ie Ts Ching Government Bank, and oted the China Mission, the Norwegian d Wesleyan Missions, and then set fire them. Subsequently they also looted e London Mission, the United Evangeli-I Church Mission and the C. I. Mission Liebonzell I ranch, and smashed up all the

The Roman Catholic Mission and their church were next destroyed, and also the godowns, premises and hulks of Messes Jardine, Matheson and Co., and Messra Butterfield and Swire All this took piace during Thursday and Friday, the 14th and 15th instant. The nich next turned its attention to the Custom House and Post Office, also to the Standard Oil Co.'s and Asiatic Petroleum Co.'s godowns and looted and destroyed them all,"also the Japanese Consulate and the Changsla Cash Mint, and burnt down all the Chinese Police stations, leaving nothing behind. The rioters looted the godowns of the Standard Oil Co. and Asiatic Petroleum

Co. before they destroyed them, the con tents being used as fuel to burn the hulks alongside the wharves.

A MISUNDERSTOOD QUESTION.

A certain amount of feeling seems to learness have been aroused in Germany in connection with the question of the Municipal police in Shanghai, says the L. and C. Express: According to information received in Berlin, the British Minister in Peking has issued, in King Edward's name, rules and regulations for the guidance of the police at Shanghai, and the Gorman Press is declaiming against this policy. The semi-official Kylminche Zeitung, in a despatch nominally dated from Shanghai, says :--This means one sided English interference in international rights, and an attempt to place the most important part of Chinese administration -- the police -- under exclusively British control, although they are really subjected to the control of the consular courts, in which Garmany is represented."" Our readers will probably ike to see the above, though they may not sureo with the construction that is put on

A PRACTICALLY WORTHLESS JUDGMENT.

In the Court of Summary Jurisdiction this morning, before the Acting Chief Justice (Hon. Mr W. Rees Davies, K.C..) two actions were called in which the defendant was Oscar Wilson. In the first case the claim was for $146.50 and wa, brought by, the Hung Shung Firm. M Jackson was for plaintiffs and Mr Gardiner for defendant.

Mr Jackson suggested that his friend should consent to judgment. He stated that proposals had been made for a settlement with defendant's creditors but they were too nebulous to admit of acceptance. He would ask for judgment now though is might be worth little or much, he did not tnow which."

Mr Gardiner said, he did not deny that his friend was entitled to judgment, but it was a question of further costs which might be incurred by a judgment. His Lordship-You had better consent Mr Gardiner-I will consent if your Lordship grants a stay of execution sine

NEW MUSIC.

We are again indebted to Messrs Enoch and Sons, 14, Great Marlborough Street,

London, for some charming songs and piano selections. One of the prettiest songs is "The Wooing of the Roses," by Cesar Franck. This composition is written in two keys and will appeal to many as i is accompanied with French as well as English words. The melody is dainty and a rippling arpeggio accompaniment adds to the charm of the song. In quite a different style is "Waiting for the Spring," by Eric Coates, and though a very pleasing number does not seem to reach the high water mark we expect from this talented composer. Another attractive drawing-room song is "When you pass, my desrest," by Miss Edith Moore. Among the two part-songs suitable for schools is a patriotic song. "Under the Flag," and there is also a pretty setting of "Tellme, bluebell" by Herbert Bunning, and a charming child's song, "The Little Black Dog," by Miss' Vere Smith. The sweet little poem written by Miss Ella Brown is very pleasing and natural and the melody so simple and tuneful that almost any child could learn it. Among the piano numbers are two by Madamo Chaminade, The first Retour" is brilliant in style and will make a very acceptable drawing-room morceau. The second, "Menuet Calant," in very quist and res ful and molodious throughout. Henri Duchatel is responsible for a very quaint and picturesque number in " Sous in Ramee." and another selection from the same pun is " Danse do la Dauphio. written in very stately measure. "Liebesgruss" and "Prospice" are both from the pen of Dr Bellairs and are written in his usual careful style. The first is composed for the piano and the other for organ.

Y. M.C. A. LIBRARY CONCERT.

In view of of the very absorbing topics to be discussed at the forthcoming session of the Y. M. C. A. Literary and Debating Society and the growing need of the Y. M. C. A. generally for new books. special efforts are being made to make the annual library concert, which takes place at the City Hall on Saturday evening, a huge success and help in this direction will be greatly appreciated by those directly concerned. From small beginnings the library has grown until at the present time it is of respectable dimensions and it includes several valuable volumes of most important works, many of them being gifts from generous donors. A , pleasing feature about the library is the fact that books from its shelves are constant demand by the members of the Y.M C.A. and the committee are anxious that its usefulness shall be extended in every way possible as it is a most valuable acquisition. It will be noted that the programme, which is appended, is a comprehensive one and is sure to be greatly appreciated. String Quartette ... "Minuet" . ... Haydn

> > THE RESERVE AND DESCRIPTION OF THE PERSON NAMED IN THE CHINA ASSOCIATION.

From a telegram printed in the N.-C. Daily News, we learn that the annual meeting of the China Association was held in London on April 19, and that the sposches delivered on that occasion were o a pessimistic character.

Sir Charles Dudgeon, the chairman, called attention to the enormous trade possibilities of Manchuria and expressed | MANILA regret at the hampering of railway development there. He laid emphasis on events of the last few years and said that China afforded little hope of any real policy. of reform.

Mr J. O. P. Bland moved an amendment urging the adoption, of greater activity and publicity by the Association. The amendment was, however, rejected by a small majority after considerable discussion. The Committee voted against it, although the Chairman personally expressed his approval of the proposal.

Mr R. S. Gundry resigned from the Committee of the Association on the pleaof age. His place is taken by Mr J. O. P.

COUNCIL OF EMPIRE

Peers who would Represent Britain Overseas.

A policy which would do much towards W. the solution of some of the chief difficuln ties, pelitical and national, of the British gr Empire is outlined by Captain Kincaid M Smith, formerly Liberal M.P. for Stratford-on-Avon, in an article on "A Federal Parliament," in the April Empire Review.

The author hints at a Federal Parliaimperial affairs, such as foreign policy, imperial defence, means of inter-communication, and the methods of raising revenue for these purposes. It would leave domestic matters, including local land defence forces, to local legislatures. Thus, Captain Kincaid Smith claims, the Irish problem would incidentally be brought nearer to solution. He"takes the suggestion which has been made of reforming the House of Lords so as to make that his Federal Parliament, and the 174 members would be divided, in preportion to population, Canada ......21 New Zealand..... South Africa .....

Such a council, he says, would enable the pavies of the various States within the Empire to be co-ordinated, and the financial contributions could be levied on the whole Empire for its own defence. As to the criticism that in such a Parliament the Colonies would be swamped by representatives of the Mother-country, he says: "Exactly the same argument might have been urged, and with even greater truth, by the people of British Columbia or Natul to any scheme of federation in Canada or gradually diminish under some system of automatic redistribution of scats."

Honghong Tides. The tide table given below has been compiled at the Nautical Almanac Office in London from the result of the analysis observations taken by means of an automatic tide-recording machine in the Wa tor Police Basin at Teim She Tsul during the years 1887-8-9. The zero of the table corresponds with the zero of the soundings in the Admiralty Charts which has been found to be 4 feet 3 inches below mean sea level. To obtain the depth of water on the tide gauge at the Victoria Naval Yard add S test 4 inches, and on the gange at Lamont Dock. Aberdeen, add 10 feet 6 inches to the height given in the table.
